Logging in

The screenshot shows the OpenStreetMap iD editor interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays the URL <https://www.openstreetmap.org/edit?editor=id#map=19/0.34226/32.55073>. The OpenStreetMap logo and navigation buttons (Edit, History, Export) are visible. The user profile is identified as 'Douglo'. A modal window titled 'Welcome to the iD OpenStreetMap editor' is centered on the screen. The modal contains the following text: 'iD is a friendly but powerful tool for contributing to the world's best free world map. This is version 1.7.0. For more information see ideditor.com and report bugs at github.com.' Below the text are two buttons: 'Start the Walkthrough' (with a blue icon of a map and a dashed path) and 'Edit Now' (with a blue icon of a location pin and a path). The background shows a satellite map view with a scale bar indicating 150 feet and a copyright notice for Bing, DigitalGlobe, GeoEye, and Microsoft Corporation. The bottom right corner shows the user's edit count: 'Edits by 1248, Allenx, Steven Bukulu, mdp553' and the version number '1.7.0'.

Uganda Red Cross Society Ornamental

150 ft Edits by Aliex, Jotam, Chris Parker and 9 others 1.7.0

Overlay

The screenshot displays the OpenStreetMap editor interface. At the top, the browser address bar shows the URL: <https://www.openstreetmap.org/edit?editor=id#map=19/0.32347/32.57552>. The main navigation bar includes the OpenStreetMap logo, 'Edit', 'History', and 'Export' buttons, along with links for 'GPS Traces', 'User Diaries', 'Copyright', 'Help', and 'About'. A user profile for 'Douglo' is visible on the right.

The map area shows a road network with a new road overlay in pink. The overlay starts at the intersection of Buganda Road and Queens Lane, extends along Queens Lane, and then turns south towards Lunnumba Avenue. Several points are marked along the overlay with IDs: 002, 003, 004, and 005. Other map features include buildings, a 'WEB INF. NET LTD.' sign, a 'Uganda Red Cross Society' building, and a 'SOLIZ HOUSE'. A scale bar at the bottom indicates 150 feet. The bottom right corner shows the edit history: 'Edits by Allenx, Jotam, Chris Parker and 9 others' and the version number '1.7.0'. A legend at the bottom right identifies colors for North (green), South (light green), East (purple), and West (red).

Visualising

The screenshot shows the OpenStreetMap editor interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays the URL: <https://www.openstreetmap.org/edit?editor=id#map=20/0.32345/32.57559>. The main navigation bar includes the OpenStreetMap logo, 'Edit', 'History', and 'Export' buttons. On the right, there are links for 'GPS Traces', 'User Diaries', 'Copyright', 'Help', and 'About', along with a user profile dropdown for 'Douglo'. The left sidebar contains a 'Search features' section with a search input field. The main map area is dark-themed and shows a purple line and several pink points labeled 002, 003, 004, and 005. A toolbar at the top of the map area includes 'Point', 'Line', and 'Area' options, along with undo, redo, and 'Save' buttons. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates 50 feet. The bottom right corner shows the copyright notice: '© OpenStreetMap contributors. North: South: East: West:' and a status bar indicating 'Edits by Aliex, jeepjockey, Chris Parker, and 6 others' and '15 hidden features'.
